MEMORANDUM FOR ALMAJCOM/FOA/DRU

SUBJECT: 2004-2005 Combined Federal Campaign (CFC)

For 47 years, the CFC has been our annual opportunity to support many worthy community organizations. Some work silently behind the scenes seeking solutions for disease and environmental problems while others are at the front line providing emergency assistance to the victims of terrorist attacks or natural disasters such as the recent Florida hurricanes.

Our heroic Airmen, civilian employees and their families have a long-standing tradition of reaching out to assist these CFC organizations with their generous contributions--even while enduring the personal hardships of fighting the War on Terrorism. CFC's efforts benefit thousands of non-profit charities, and deserve nothing less than our very best fund-raising effort.

Commanders should take a personal interest in their local CFC and provide support and resources to its volunteers. Your personal commitment to the CFC will ensure a successful campaign and continued support of the organizations that assist our Air Force families.
